

SPOOKS, GOBLINS and other good things will blossom on lawns and porches Wednesday night as area children turn out for the traditional Halloween night pilgrimage. Could this be the Great Pumpkin?

Ghosts, Goblins And Witches Take Over For A Night

Apples, cookies, candy and donuts, witches, ghosts, ghouls and goblins. They don't seem to go together, do they?

The traditional trappings of All Hallows' Eve, hallowed evening, or now known as Halloween - the magic word for children the world over.

Wednesday evening the annual pilgrimage begins at dusk, when by some time-honored and unspoken understanding little people, costumed and clutching assorted articles for holding goodies, pour into the streets to wander door to door "trick or treating."

Generally, as the evening gets later, the children get bigger so that by a point beyond the bedtime of small fry, some pretty big kids are turning up at front doors!

Also traditionally, about the only diversions open to children on Halloween night are door to door solicitation until exhaustion sets in or a party at a friend's house, or both.

However, Hancock County children are more fortunate than most by virtue of a movement gaining momentum in the Bay-Waveland area.

Planned attractions appropriate to the evening and geared to delight and entertain young people will be open Halloween afternoon and evening by a school and in private homes.

Our Lady of the Gulf School in Bay St. Louis will get things rolling with a Spook House at the school, starting at noon. A penny party in disguise; the Spook House will have besides good things to eat and drink and games to play, an amazing assortment of creatures guaranteed to scare even the most intrepid. A fistful of pennies is all a little person needs to raise a batch of goose bumps until 5 p.m. when the Spook House closes.

After that opener, starting at dark, pre-teen trick or treaters can wander down to a Haunted Dungeon at 619 Highland Drive in North Bay and really get freaked out. According to the proprietors of the residence, the Jerry Blenkins, a UFO landed in their backyard last week some time during the night. The next morning, the Blenkins discovered that the UFO occupants had moved into their garage and transformed the place into a frightening cavern - dark, dank and dangerous.

Unbelievable sounds have been emanating from the dungeon all week and the Blenkins have issued an invitation to all under 13-year-old spook seekers in the area to investigate the interior. Eleven-year-old Bobby Blenkins has already ventured past the witch at the door (she said she was waiting for friends to turn up Halloween night) and reports that within there is a mummy in a coffin which doesn't seem to be altogether dead, a giant with glowing eyes, a wolfman (caged), a hunchback with a bad temper, some vampires and Count Dracula. There is also a creature, Bob says, who told him he was an experiment of Dr. Frankenstein's that went wrong.

Anyone who can withstand the shock of that horror can go down to Waveland where the most unbelievable jungle is developing at the Bert Steffels' home on 138 Lafayette Drive. A practically impenetrable cane brake has grown up surrounding the house inhabited by some really weird creatures, Bert says the same thing happened about this time last year and he thinks it has something to do with the weather. Actually it has to do with the evil powers of ancient Druids because it all disappears the day after Halloween.

Any person possessing the courage to invade the dark and forbidding jungle will likely find a wolf man lurking in the bushes, a tremendous gorilla whose cage is not too sturdy and who occasionally gets loose, a terribly pale lady lying in a coffin (you'll never know

Mayor Voices Objections

Council Votes Utility Hike

The Bay St. Louis City Council voted 2-1 Monday in favor of a proposal to increase utility rates by 20 percent over the objections of Bay Mayor Warren Carver.

The council instructed city attorney Joseph Gex to draw up an ordinance with the proposed 20 percent increase in it. Gex said that a public hearing would have to be held on the ordinance before it could be passed.

Council members Lucien Kidd and Clarence Ladner voted for the motion proposing a city ordinance for the rate increase after Utility Commissioner Kidd presented a budget of $611,287 to the council for fiscal year 1974 along with a letter explaining why the increase was necessary.

Mayor Carver said that he felt more study should be done on the budget to determine where costs could be cut. Carver proposed a lesser rate hike of 10 percent and a cost study to see where expenses could be cut to make up the difference in revenue.

The Mayor had made known his objections to the flat rate increase at the council's last meeting when Kidd had hinted at a 15 percent increase, saying that he would rather see a 5 to 10 percent increase and a concentrated effort to reduce costs wherever possible.

Carver reiterated his objections Monday. "In all fairness to the taxpayer, we should try to cut this thing and get expenses down to a minimum. I would go ahead with a 10 percent increase and over the next three months do a cost study," Carver said.

"This is what we have done," Kidd said. "That is what is in this paper."

"What I'm getting at in here is salaries of clerks, supervisors and so on," the mayor said. "Do you see anywhere you can cut back in salaries or do without any of these people?"

"I don't see anywhere we can do it," Kidd answered.

Commissioner Kidd explained that the budget contained no funds for any new construction and only a five percent cost of living raise for some of his office personnel.

Commissioner Kidd said that rising natural gas costs to the city and increased bond and interest payments

High Noon

The city dog pound has eight dogs now that may be adopted by anyone who would like a nice pet. The selection includes two seven week old female pups that would make good hunting dogs next year. Both are black and tan.

The pound also has four medium size male hounds, all brown except for one white that looks like he might have some red bone in him. The other two dogs are a tan and white female part collie pictured this week on the inside pages and a small grey mixture who has a Schnauzer face.

Anyone interested in any of the dogs may call the Police Department any time or come by the pound between 10 a.m. and noon Friday. The dogs will be put to sleep at noon Friday if no one adopts them.

EVERYBODY LOVES A PARADE, especially these two diminutive onlookers who found a comfortable spot to watch the Veterans Day parade Monday which preceded the annual observance on the court house steps. (See photo feature Page A-4)

WETLANDS BOUNDARY photomaps, placed on public notice in the county court house this week are inspected by Chancery Clerk John Rutherford, Joe Gill, Jr. and Hardin Shattuck. Gill and Shattuck are members of the Miss Marine Resources Council which initiated compilation of the unique photomaps.

Garbage Fee Effective Nov. 1

There was more debate this week over the proposed $150 monthly garbage collection fee before the Bay St. Louis City Council finally passed a motion to enforce a three-year-old city ordinance. The fee will become effective Nov. 1.

The ordinance authorizing the fee was passed by council on Feb. 2, 1970 but was suspended by a later vote on May 4, 1970.

City attorney Joseph Gex, referred to minutes of the council and said that the ordinance still stands.

"The ordinance," he said, "states that the fee will be collected in the form of a special charge to be added into each citizen's utility bill. For persons not receiving utility service by the city (those living in an annexed area) the utility commission is authorized to bill them for this service."

Debate over the fee centered on who would be charged, how much would be charged, and how the fee would be collected.

"I thought at one time we could restrict this charge to the people in the inside area," Carver said. "However, now I think this would be unfair to those people, and I think we should charge everyone."

Felix Seeger, city sanitation director, wanted to know if the council was confining the charge strictly to garbage or expanding it to include trash too.

"You can't just have a garbage charge and not explain it," he said. "You have to figure out how you're going to collect from these people on the outside too."

"I think the main thing is deciding whether we're going to do it or not," council member Lucien Kidd said.

Carver agreed "the longer we wait, the more we are going to go into the red," he said.

Councilman Kidd said that payments would vary but there would be a base rate of 1.50 per household. Allowances would be made he said for apartment dwellings, mobile home parks, and business establishments.

In other council business Monday, assistant fire chief Robert Andrews petitioned the council to appropriate $500 for the cost of new uniforms for the fire department.

Andrews asked the council to pay for 18 new shirts, nine jackets and 27 pairs of trousers. The department needed the new uniforms, he said, because of psychological reasons and for reasons of pride. Most municipalities either furnish uniforms or give firemen a clothing allowance, he said.

Council appropriated the money.

LB Woman Killed In I-10 Crash

Mrs. Emily Jo Favre, 34, of Long Beach was one of two persons fatally injured Friday night in a 17-vehicle crash just east of Slidell, La., in the east-bound lane of Interstate 10.

Mrs. Favre resided at Rt. 1, Box 94H on Fred Frank road. Her body was taken to Riemann Funeral Home in Gulfport.

Two Bay St. Louis residents were among the 31 persons injured in the chain-reaction crash. Mrs. Audrey Collier, 316 St. John St., and Thaddeus Collier, Jr., 308 Carroll Ave., both were reported in satisfactory condition Saturday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

The other fatality was listed as Donald Barrios, Sr., 45, of New Orleans. Six of the persons injured were hospitalized.

According to Louisiana state police, the accident which occurred about 7:30 p.m. was apparently the result of poor visibility caused by a mosquito fogging machine.

Photomaps On Record In Court House

H. Hardin Shattuck, member of the Mississippi Marine Resources Council and Joe Gill, Jr. of the staff, placed on public record this week copies of the Coastal Wetlands Boundary Photomaps in the Hancock County courthouse and Bay St. Louis City Hall.

The primary purpose of the Coastal Wetlands Photomaps is to provide supplemental information for administration of the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act in accordance with Rules and Regulations adopted by the Mississippi Marine Resources Council on July 10, 1973. These initial photomaps will serve as a general guide to provide concerned citizens, developers and decision-makers with an overview of the extent and distribution of Coastal Wetlands within Jackson, Harrison and Hancock Counties, Mississippi. The maps also indicate wetlands which have been developed or altered by past activities as well as those areas which are still virtually undisturbed.

Planning and preparation of the Coastal Wetlands Photomaps was accomplished in conjunction with Mississippi Marine Resources Council staff members, and through the facilities of Gulf Regional Planning Commission and the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Gulf Regional Planning Commission also arranged coordination with other State, Federal and private organizations in acquiring data, material and necessary reproduction work for constructing the photomap bases.

Photography for constructing the photomap bases was obtained from the National Aeronautical and Space Administration's (NASA) Earth Observation Aircraft Program, through the cooperative efforts of the State Office of Science and Technology under the Office of the Governor, William L. Waller.

The provisions of the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act will have precedence over any variance arising from Coastal Wetlands Photomaps

Bids Opened For City Streets

The Bay City Council received a single bid Tuesday for the hard surfacing of roads in the city. Tri State Materials, Inc. of Gulfport, Miss submitted a bid of $52,830 for road work on eight streets. Deadline for bids was Oct. 23.

Streets which are included in the bid are Webster (from Seminary Dr. to Dunbar Ave.), Commager Blvd., Carroll Ave. extension, Keller Ave. (from Booker St. to St. Francis), the first block of Union St., Booker St. (from Blaise to Necaise), Union St. (from Hancock to Booker), and the extension of Keller Ave. (from Blaise to Booker).

No action was taken by the council on the bid Tuesday.

Come To The Fair

An open horse show Saturday night will kick off the annual Hancock County Fair and Livestock Show which promises to be the biggest and best yet, according to Donald Famularo, Fair Assn. president.

The horse show, which begins at 6 p.m. Saturday night at the fairgrounds arena on the Old Kiln Rd., is open to all horsemen from children through adults.

A halter class with six divisions will be the first event, followed by 31 performance classes. For the first time this year an English Pleasure class will be included in the primarily Western show. Entry fees are $2 for judged events and $1.50 for timed events. Five place trophies will be given in each event. The open point show will follow SMHS and RA rules.

The Fair and Livestock show opens to the public Monday at 8 a.m. for exhibitors and will run daily and evenings through Saturday, Nov. 3.

Exhibits in the National Guard Armory will include homemaking, crafts, industrial and commercial exhibits. Livestock of every description will be judged and on display daily in the livestock arena. A carnival and rides will complete the Fair attractions.

Trial Date Set For Bay Dentist

Circuit Court Judge Floyd J. Logan set a trial date of Jan. 21 for Dr. Nicholas George Elchos last Thursday after the Bay St. Louis dentist waived formal arraignment and announced he was ready for trial.

Elchos, 45, was indicted by a special Hancock County grand jury earlier in the month on charges of violating the person of a child after a complaint by the child's mother that the dentist had tried to engage in illicit sexual activities with her eight-year-old daughter while she was a patient of Elchos.

Elchos is free under $3,000 bond pending trial.

Police Report

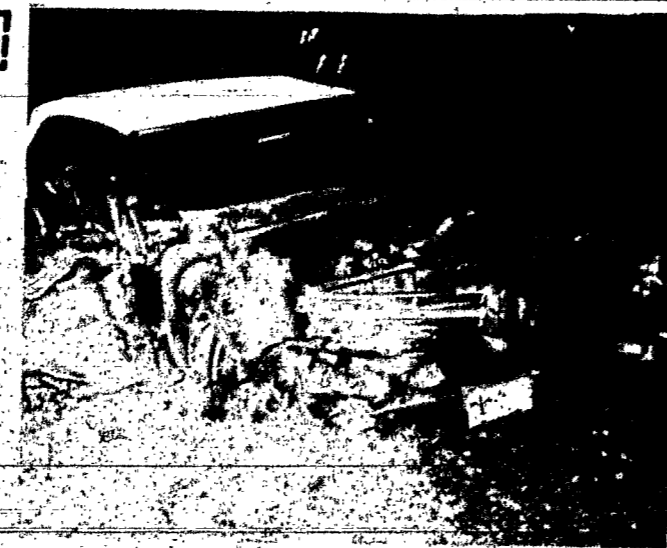

Bay St. Louis police responded to 30 calls in the period between Oct. 18 and 24.

Police Chief William Carbonette arrested a 16-year-old boy Oct. 18 at the Bay A&P supermarket on complaint of the manager that the youth had taken a carton of cigarettes from the store without paying. The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities for further action.

Bay police are searching for the driver of a 1973 or '74 Pontiac LeMans automobile who left the premises of the E-Z Foodstore on Highway 90 without paying for $8 worth of gas Oct. 18. The car was described as yellow with black stripes and bore no license plate.

The new flashing warning lights are now in operation on Highway 90 at school crossing areas, Chief Carbonette advises. The lights flash from 8 to 9 a.m. and 2 to 3 p.m. each weekday. At those times, the highway speed limit is reduced to 25 MPH through the school zones.

Carbonette expressed special thanks to Bailey Electric, Inc. which installed the lights for the city.

MIDNIGHT RIDE—for the driver of this Pontiac LeMans ended in disaster when she collided head-on with a utility pole on North Beach Blvd. near Highway 90, shortly after midnight, breaking the pole and demolishing the car. Mrs. June Johnson was admitted to Hancock General Hospital with injuries resulting from the accident.

Driver Hospitalized By Crash

A Bay St. Louis woman escaped serious injury Friday night when she apparently lost control of the car she was driving on North Beach Blvd. and collided head-on with a utility pole about 200 feet from Highway 90. Mrs. June Johnson, 52, who gave police a Charles St. address, was taken to Hancock General Hospital by Riemann Fahey ambulance about 1 a.m. where she was admitted with undetermined injuries. Wednesday she was listed in fair condition. The utility pole was broken as a result of the accident and power in the area was interrupted for a short period. Mrs. Johnson's 1970 Pontiac was listed by police as a total loss.

Investigating officers were Harris-Boudreaux, Larry Ladner and Chief William Carbonette.

Learning Problems

Screening Program Underway

The Gulf Coast Mental Health Program, with assistance from Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary, is conducting a screening project this fall to help identify children with potential learning difficulties.

Members of the Auxiliary were trained by Dr. Ray Cox, counseling psychologist, to administer the tests to first grade children. All evaluation is done by Dr. Cox. Children in either public or private school in Bay St. Louis or Waveland have been offered these services at no charge.

Children who have been referred by teachers are being tested as quickly as possible. IQ and self-concept tests are given and a rating of each child's behavior is provided by his teacher. Teacher conferences will be held to discuss recommendations and needs for further evaluation or referral. A parent conference will be held for the parents of all children who have been screened. Testing should be completed by the end of October.

Chairman of the project for the Junior Auxiliary is Mrs. John Rosetti. This is the Junior Auxiliary's second year to participate in learning disability testing.

SCREENING PROJECT to detect learning problems in Bay-Waveland first grade students is underway through the joint efforts of the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center and the B-W Junior Auxiliary. Above Mrs. John Rosetti, Jr. Aux. project chairman, administrators a self-concept test to a young first grader.

JOINT BIRTHDAY FETES

David Pitale celebrated his fifth birthday and his sister, Cindy, her first with a party Sunday afternoon at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pitale Jr. Pony rides and a clown grab bag were among activities enjoyed by David and Cindy and their guests.

Guests were David's classmates at Our Lady of the Gulf Kindergarten; also Melissa and Sandy Monti, Scott and Chris Karl, Melissa and Sabrina Kersanac, Bill Poolson, Tina Jones, Ashton Ladner, Coco and Kelly Poolson and Gus Aime.

Born August 7, 1888, in Bay St. Louis, she was the daughter of the late Frank and Rosa Palmisano Parrillo. She was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Survivors include a son, Charles S. Henry, New Orleans; a step-son, Stewart L. Henry, Metairie, La.; a sister, Mrs. J. B. Tucel, Biloxi; a brother, Joseph T. Parrillo, Bay St. Louis; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Monday from Riemann-Fahey Funeral Home chapel followed by a Requiem Mass at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with Rev. Daniel Gallagher, associate pastor, officiating. Interment was at 2 p.m. in Metairie Cemetery, Metairie, La. Pallbearers were James D. Henry Jr., Kenneth Henry, Charles S. Henry Jr., John Scaffie Sr. and John Scaffie Jr.

Shows To Entertain Vets Year Round

In response to the need to relieve feelings of frustration, isolation and boredom on the part of servicemen and veterans -lingering in military and VA Hospitals across the nation, the United Service Organizations initiated a new USO-Help Shows Circuit launched in connection with Veterans Day.

While America has set aside a single day, October 22nd, for the purpose of remembering and paying tribute to its military veterans, the new USO Shows program will assure that hospitalized veterans are remembered the year round through a regular schedule of visiting celebrity shows.

Launched in association with Hospital Programs, Inc., an all-volunteer group of prominent citizens and entertainers, the USO Shows program will be the first organized effort to bring entertainment on a continuing basis to the bedridden and hospitalized veterans and servicemen nationwide.

During the ten-day period surrounding Veterans Day, USO Shows will launch the stateside VA Hospital Circuit with 26 entertainment groups which are scheduled to fan out across the country visiting in VA and Military Hospitals from Monterey, California to Jacksonville, Florida.

The full schedule of visits through October involves 47 celebrity entertainers and famous cartoonists plus 16 shows and musical groups. Thereafter the program will be continued on regular basis aimed at raising the spirits of the more than 180,000 patients in Government Hospitals across the country, 160 of which are VA Hospitals. These patients, both young and old, often feel trapped in a web of despair after sacrificing their health and well-being for the National Defense in conflicts dating back to W.W. I and earlier.

DEATHS

One Flag One Nation Indivisible

It was a grand old parade. For a moment nothing else was important in the lives of people besieged by resignations, hearings, rising costs, and undone homework. Crowds began to gather along sidewalks as the first few notes of instruments warming up sifted down the streets.

Drums beat, sirens blew, and then it was underway. Up Carroll Ave., down Beach Blvd. it snaked along. Then down Main Street past the County Court House. The air was full with the resonance of pounding drums. Anticipation was on the faces of everyone as people stood in shop doors and strained their necks to see if it was coming yet.

"Here they come. Here they come." Parents darted out with cameras up and snapped a hurried picture. Dogs bewildered by the commotion ran between the legs and under marching feet.

Oh, yes, there were speeches too. And welcomeings. And visiting dignitaries. And flag raisings. And more music. And everywhere happy faces.

What's a parade without pom pom girls? Connally Comperta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Comperta of Waveland, waits for the show to get on the road again. Connally is mascot for Our Lady of the Gulf cheerleaders.

Youngsters Trick Or Treat For UNICEF

Christ Episcopal Church of Bay St. Louis will be the host this year for the annual "Trick or Treat for UNICEF."

Area youth from churches in the community will participate in the fund raising event on Halloween night.

The Reverend Bernard Walton, pastor of Main St. United Methodist Church which hosted the event last year, said that participants will leave from Virginia Hall at Christ Episcopal Church at 6:30 p.m.

All youth collecting contributions will be easily identified by a special badge, he said, and will carry a UNICEF canister.

UNICEF is an international, nonpolitical organization which lends support to children of developing countries all over the world. Money for UNICEF's work comes from voluntary pledges and contributions and goes to provide supplies, equipment and training for children through aid to institutions such as schools and health centers.

OLG Plans 'Spook House'

The Spook House will be the featured attraction at Our Lady of the Gulf's annual penny party to be staged October 31 from noon to 5 p.m. on the school grounds.

Among some of the excitement in the Spook House will be a quick sand pit, tunnel of horror and Frankenstein's Lab. On entering, visitors will be met by weird celebrities including Hazel the Witch, the demon, Hunch Back of Notre Dame and many other eerie personalities "created" for the occasion.

Booths with large selections of gift items for teenagers, pre-teen and toddlers and a vintage's nest for adults will be featured.

Added attractions will be Dracula's sweet treats, Monsters of the Black Lagoon, Ghostly Munch On, Witches Pit, grave diggers, and a ghoulish green house. The public is invited. Admission fee is 25 cents.

MR. BILLY C. RAY OF BAY ST. LOUIS ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HIS NEW IMPALA FROM TURAN-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN VERNON BERMOND.

Mr. Ray shopped the new car dealers for a good deal, at Turan-Lane Chevrolet he talked to salesman Vernon Bermond who gave him a demonstration drive in a 1973 four door Impala Sedan, which he liked very much. The Turan-Lane deal given him by Vernon Bermond and the luxury ride made him the new owner of the Impala sedan. Mr. Ray really liked the way everyone was so nice to him at Turan-Lane during his visits there, also the professional way they do their transactions.

Casting Set For Next Little Theatre Production

Casting for The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds is complete. Nancy Gex will play the role of Beatrice, the haggard shrew of a mother; Ruth, the elder of her daughters whom she drives into mental breakdown, will be Kristin Franchkiewicz; Tilly, the younger daughter, will be done by Susan Smith. Terry Hill will appear as Janice, science-fair competitor, and Franya Franchkiewicz will play Nanny, octogenarian boarder in the house of the mother and daughters.

Nancy Gex will be remembered for her portrayal of the sister in I Never Sang for My Father. It was her first appearance on the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre stage, and for it she earned a Louie for Best Supporting Actress. Kristin Franchkiewicz is a senior at Bay High; she recently was announced as a National Merit Semi-Finalist. Susan Smith, also a senior at Bay High, moved to Mississippi three months ago from Brazil.

Paula Schott will produce the play, with Vic Franchkiewicz as technical director. Laurie Byrd, director, announces the play for performance on December 6, 7 and 8.

Season memberships for the Bay Little Theatre are available from DeMontuzin Drugstore, according to Mrs. Rene DeMontuzin, new membership chairman. Season price is $8.

UNICEF And Us

This Halloween, once again, children in our town and in towns and cities across the country will gather to make magic for the millions of other children whose world contains more than its share of poverty, ignorance and despair.

As they collect coins and currency for the United Nations Children's Fund our youngsters will offer us the opportunity to help UNICEF provide medical care, improved nutrition and education assistance for other children in 111 countries of the Third World -- a world where nearly half the population is under 15, where the average per capita income is less than $200, where three out of every ten babies don't survive their first five years. In the developing areas of Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East just one of our pennies can protect a child against tuberculosis, a dime can provide enough dry milk to make 50 glasses of liquid milk, and a quarter can buy a baby chick for an applied nutrition program.

But the magic doesn't end there. When you help UNICEF help a child, that child's government helps too. For every $1 the Children's Fund spends in a developing country, that country provides an average $2.50 in local resources. And when a UNICEF-assisted youngster grows up healthy, literate, hopeful and productive, he in turn can contribute to the development of his family and his nation. By assisting their children, UNICEF helps these countries help themselves.

October 31 is National UNICEF Day by Presidential proclamation. On or about that day each one of us can in effect take out "World Insurance" by dedicating our pennies and quarters, dimes and dollars to children in need of a better future. It's not only the children's world we'll be improving, but our own as well.

Home Makers Notes

By Norine Barnes, Hancock County Home Economist

Are your fair entries ready? Now is the time to pick up your catalogues at the Extension Office on Necaise Avenue, Bay St. Louis.

Our newly-elected Homemakers Council Officers are: President, Mrs. Ethel Breux of Edwardsville Club; Mrs. Salvador Nigilazo, Vice President, of Bay St. Louis Club; Mrs. Ginger Horn, Secretary, of Clermont Harbor Club; Mrs. Elda Duke, Treasurer, of Bay St. Louis Club; Mrs. Edna Poolson, Parliamentarian, of Edwardsville Club.

SPEEDY WASHING PREVENTS CORROSION

Stainless steel flatware occasionally stains if certain foods are not washed off promptly. Salt, fruit and fruit juices, tomatoes, vinegar and dairy products are the worst offenders. They corrode the surface by breaking through the thin, transparent, protective film of chromium and nickel oxides on the steel surface. Oxygen from the air heals minor breaks in the film after the utensil has been cleaned and set aside. If food is allowed to remain, the air cannot reach the break to heal it and corrosion will take place each time the steel becomes wet. Dark marks may respond to treatment with detergent.

Load flatware in a dishwasher carefully so that no two pieces nest together. Make sure water is hot and the recommended amount of dishwasher detergent is used. Remember that speedy washing, whether done by hand or machine, prevents corrosion and keeps stainless steel truly stainless.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY
Getting a little spook ready for Halloween? If so, you need to take certain precautions. Although dull black witches' costumes and skeleton suits are often favorites, they can be dangerous. They are difficult to see in darkened roadways. So buy or make costumes which are light colored and made of flameproof material. Make sure the outfits aren't tripping hazards and won't catch on bushes, hedges, or fences. If you place reflecting tape on costumes, capes, hats and broomsticks, it will give a "spookier" appearance as well as making the little spook easier to see.

It's safer to paint a fake face than to wear a mask. Cosmetics and burnt cork will give a good goblin effect. Masks are dangerous because they may restrict vision. They also provide a hiding place for dangerous objects.

Keep your goblin out on the street. Business, remind him to be safe.

extra careful in crossing streets. Also, advise him to cross at intersections and not to dart out from behind parked cars. If you happen to be a motorist on Halloween, remember there will be more children on the street than usual. Slow down.

Social Security News

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME

Supplemental security income (SSI) is a new Federal program intended to establish an income floor for the financially needy who are 65 or over, blind, or disabled. Payments will begin January 1974.

To be operated by the Social Security Administration, SSI will replace the public assistance programs of aid to the aged, blind, and disabled now administered by the local welfare office. Those already receiving monthly checks from this agency in the above categories will be automatically transferred to SSI next January.

Maximum payments will be $130 a month for one person or $195 for a couple. Not all eligible persons or couples, however, will actually receive these amounts. They may be reduced by income that a person already has although some income is exempt in determining benefits.

There are also limitations on the assets, resources, or property that a person may own and still qualify. A home will not usually be counted against the limitation.

Although administered by social security, SSI is entirely different from its other programs. Its costs will be paid by Federal general revenues. SSA Trust Funds will not be affected or disturbed.

As the name implies, the new Federal plan will supplement income of the financially needy up to amounts set by law.

For further information contact your social security office at 62015 Pass Road, Gulfport, MS or call 898-1323.

We shall always associate October with one of the most interesting periods of our life, because it was in that month in 1919 that we first visited New Orleans.

We stayed first at the Boston Club and later for a week at the St. Charles Hotel, where we were disgruntled to discover that the hotel personnel was not at all interested in Jeff Davis' stay there in 1860 and his meetings in a room (which they couldn't identify for me) with Southern leaders to plan the formation of the Confederate States.

We visited the cemeteries, the Mint and Customs House, had lunch at Antoine's, and dinner at a wonderful little place on some unremembered cross-street where we tasted our first pompano cooked in a paper bag; we sampled sazeraca at several bars and spent an evening at our first jai alai games at an exciting place which we believe was somewhere in Arabi, near the river, which we crossed by ferryboat the next morning to see the old shipyard which used to be there.

Another October also rides high in our memories. Just ten years later, on October 29, 1929, came the dramatic stock market crash and the beginning of the Great Depression. That was indeed a day to remember! We spent some of the time in the customers' room of a large stock brokerage house in New York, watching the stock prices racing across the ticker, some bravely fighting the decline, others dropping like stones falling into a well. We saw Fox Film tumble like a boulder crashing down a steep hillside, and the dramatic attempt to plug U.S. Steel at 100. At noon we went into the Stock Exchange and watched the frantic ravings of the floor traders and pushed our way along Broad street in a din of oaths and shouting. We saw a man jump from a window of a building on Broadway and others wandering in the street like dazed robots. It was the reverse of rags to riches, a tragedy to many beyond belief, a day never to be forgotten.

And now, here is another October, spent in the peace and beauty of the Gulf Coast countryside, among lovely scenes and friendly people. The leaves are turning gloriously scarlet and yellow, the Christmas berries are reddening on the bushes, the cool wind moans around the corners of our house, and if Halloween comes, can Thanksgiving be far behind?

Washington Report

By: Rep. Trent Lott

When Gerald Ford emerged from a crowded field as the nominee for Vice President, many Capitol Hill observers thought they heard a collective sigh of relief from those of us on the House Judiciary Committee.

Gerald Ford, after all, is a Congressman -- Respected on both sides of the aisle as a proven and effective leader. Confirmation hearings, most observers agreed, would be brief and to the point.

There's a good deal of truth in that assumption. Those of us on the committee are pleased that we will be examining a fellow member instead of a complete stranger.

Still, the hearings will be very thorough -- as they should be. When we have fully and exhaustively scrutinized Gerald Ford's background and qualifications, we will make our recommendation to the full membership of the House of Representatives.

And I have every reason to believe that, when all is said and done, we will make a favorable recommendation.

I say that because most of us feel that Gerald Ford was the right choice at this time. His selection prevented a possibly divisive struggle in the Congress, where many members openly expressed misgivings about three of the most prominently-mentioned possibilities: former Treasury Secretary John Connally, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

By selecting Ford, the President smoothed those ruffled feathers in the Congress and, at the same time, came up with a man capable of assuming the awesome responsibilities of the Presidency should the need arise. In short, I think the President made a wise choice in Gerald Ford.

Since this is the first real test of the 25th amendment to the United States Constitution, we have no precedents to follow. We will be remembered in history as the first Congress to confirm a Vice President in this manner.

The 25th Amendment, ratified in 1967 by 39 of the 50 states -- including Mississippi -- reads: "Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress."

Had it not been passed, we would now be without a Vice President for the next three years. Speaker of the House Carl Albert of Oklahoma would be second in command.

Our colleagues in the Senate are confronted with the same historic challenge. Their procedures are similar to ours, except that the confirmation hearings will be handled by the Senate Rules Committee rather than by the Judiciary Committee.

All indications, the Senate as well as in the House, point to a thorough but favorable confirmation of Gerald Ford as our next Vice President.

PRODUCTION RECORDS

You couldn't imagine a banker or merchant trying to do business without records, could you? The same should hold true for the farmer. Many of today's farmers have larger capital investments than many urban businessmen. Farmers should use every means at their disposal to protect that investment. This includes production records.

For the farmer whose type of farming is primarily row crop, the records should include a map of numbered fields, land preparation practices, planting densities and patterns, fertilizer rates and kinds of fertilizer, cultivation dates and practices, herbicide and insecticide applications and crop yields. Basic weather records including rainfall and temperatures would also be helpful.

For the livestock farmer records of hay, feed grains, silage and grazing would be needed. Records on the livestock are also necessary. These should include rate of gain, milk production and breeding dates. Record programs available to livestock farmers include Beef Performance Testing and DHIA.

LIME
Liming soybean land that needs it does not cost, it pays big! By liming strongly acid soils we can expect an annual yield increase of seven to ten bushels per acre. On moderately acid soil, we can look for three to seven bushels.

It doesn't take much of a mathematician to figure the profits at the present price of soybeans, especially when one application of lime lasts three to four years.

FEEDER PIG SHOW
The second annual Mississippi Feeder Pig Show and Sale will be held at the State Fairgrounds in Jackson, October 30-31. The show is open to all Mississippi feeder pig producers, both purebred and crossbred.

SEED CARE
If you are planning to save cotton or soybean seed for next year's crop, proper storage is essential. Both should be aerated immediately after being put in storage. Cooling the seed helps preserve quality.

Periodic aeration during storage will help prevent moisture accumulation. Checking on the stored seed at intervals will help detect problems before they cause much damage.

Veterans Information

Q--An explosion killed my son during military service in Vietnam, and his body was never recovered. Will the Veterans Administration provide a memorial marker?

A--Yes. The memorial may be erected in a private cemetery in a plot provided by the applicant, or in the memorial section of a national cemetery. Apply to the nearest VA office.

Q--The Veterans Administration is giving my daughter dependents' educational assistance based on the service-connected death of my husband. Since she plans to marry soon, I wonder if this will affect her assistance?

A--Your daughter's marriage would have no effect on her education benefits. A widow's remarriage under the same program, however, would result in termination of benefits, unless the remarriage was terminated by death or divorce.

Q--My husband was killed in action during World War II, and I never remarried. Am I eligible for a Veterans Administration GI home loan?

A--Yes. The Veterans Housing Act of 1970 restored unused VA home loan benefits to veterans of World War II and later periods, including those who were married and divorced.

Food Stamp Program Information

(This column is prepared by the Food Assistance Division in cooperation with the Informational Services Unit of the Mississippi State Department of Public Welfare, Max M. Cole, Commissioner.)

Q. Who Makes the Food Stamp Rules Anyway?

A. All food stamp rules and regulations begin with the United States Congress. It is here that the laws are passed that govern the Nation and the Food Stamp Program. From there, the Food and Nutrition Service of the United States Department of Agriculture takes over. FNS in Washington, D. C. works with each of their regional offices which in turn works with each state within the region to develop the rules and regulations for that state. As the laws are changed, each state must change their rules and regulations to match the federal law. In Mississippi, the Food Assistance Division of the Mississippi Department of Public Welfare is responsible for keeping up with the changes in the laws governing food stamps. The Food Assistance Division then notifies the county welfare department and they in turn notify the people interested in the Food Stamp Program. The National laws are changing constantly and if you were not eligible for food stamps six months or a year ago you may be eligible now.

Q. Is the Information I Give to the Food Stamp Worker Made Public Record?

A. NO. The State Department of Public Welfare and each of the county welfare departments will restrict the use or giving out of information about you to those persons directly connected with the administration, enforcement, education and outreach efforts of the Food Stamp Program. This means that only the employees of the State and County Welfare Departments, Officers-in-Charge, other officials of the United States Department of Agriculture and Federal Auditors from the Office of Inspector General and law enforcement officials investigating and prosecuting cases involving fraud, are the only ones that have access to your information. Mr. John Doe cannot walk into the welfare office and obtain information about you.

Remember, we are trying to answer these questions in a general way and that when a person applies for food stamps his individual situation is considered. If you think you may be eligible to receive food stamps, please contact your local Welfare Department. They will be happy to talk with you.

Q. If I Own my House or my Car, Would I be Eligible for Food Stamps?

A. The fact that you may own your home or your car has very little to do with whether you are eligible for food stamps. Although these are resources to you, they are not counted in deciding eligibility for food stamps. The main thing to remember is that the number of people living with you, and the net amount of income this group of people has is much more a deciding factor as to eligibility than a house, one car, personal effects and household goods, life insurance or income-producing property.

Q. What if I Own Land Somewhere Other Than the Land I Live On? Will This

Keep me From Being Eligible to Buy Food Stamps?

A. In the previous question, we mentioned income-producing property as not being counted against you. However, we feel that we must develop this further. If your property is producing income consistent with its fair market value or it is essential to your self-support, the value of the property will not be counted against you but the amount of income you receive from this property each month may be enough to disqualify you from buying food stamps. If you receive a yearly sum, this is usually prorated or divided by 12 to arrive at a monthly figure to consider as income. You may have timber on your property or you may be raising cattle. Timber itself is not considered as a resource. However, the income received from the sale of timber must be considered. The same thing holds true if you have cattle. The maximum amount of cash reserve or resources a family may have is $3,000 for families of two or more persons which includes at least one member age 60 or over, and $1,500 for all other households.

DOG OF THE WEEK - Say, I need a home. You don't know what it's like here in this pound. Oh, everybody's nice, but I can only stay here five days before I go to the gas chamber. You can come out and claim me anytime before noon Friday. All it takes is a few dollars for the cost of my shots and tag. You can do me a big favor, and I promise you that you won't be sorry.

USM-Gulf Park Plans Seminar

A two-day seminar on "Alcoholism and its Effect on the Family" will be held Nov. 16-17 on the campus of the University of Southern Mississippi-Gulf Park.

The seminar is being conducted by Mrs. Thersa Wilson, vocational rehabilitation adjustment counselor for Pass Christian High School. Mrs. Wilson holds a master's degree in mental retardation, an AA certificate in learning disabilities, and a bachelor's degree in elementary education. She has 14 years' teaching experience in elementary and secondary schools.

The material to be covered in the seminar will be directed toward the person who feels that drinking may be a problem for him or to some member of his family. It will be designed to show what the professional authorities, as well as the people who have experienced the problem, know about alcoholism.

Further information about the seminar is available from Henry D'Aquila, Department of Conferences and Workshops, USM-Gulf Park, Long Beach, Miss. 39560 or by calling 864-2155.

interpretations. Final determination of permitting jurisdiction for any area or activity will be based on field investigation and conformity to the definitions and provisions of the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act and the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Council.

In conformance with the Coastal Wetlands Protection Act, the Mississippi Marine Resources Council will conduct field inspections on a continuing basis in order to monitor Coastal Wetlands activities. Coastal Wetlands Photomap interpretations will be periodically updated and refined as more information becomes available through field investigation and remote sensing methods.

had necessitated the rate hike. In his memorandum to the council Kidd pointed out that costs of gas alone from June 1971 to the present date reflected an increase of 19.1 percent on purchase prices to the city.

All information further indicates that United Gas will propose another two cent increase Jan. 1, 1974, he said, followed by an additional 4.3 cents per million cubic feet in April.

"This means that we are looking at an additional 15 percent cost increase," the memorandum states.

The memorandum further points out that the Reserve Bond and Interest Fund was depleted in 1973. Kidd said that payments on bonds and interest in 1973 amounted to $195,851.90 while the budget provided only $123,000 to meet this payment. Kidd said that bond and interest payments due in this fiscal year amount to $202,567.50.

when she's going to pop up at a passerby, Count Dracula and his wife who have a bowl of blood steaming on a table and offer everybody a drink of it, and a witch who isn't so bad after all because she gives little kids candy. Of course, by that point, a lot of little kids are fighting to get out but are too fascinated to leave.

There are other such treats scattered in neighborhoods in the two cities, created through the tremendous effort and not a little expense of groups of private citizens working weeks ahead to delight children Wednesday night.

Their only reward is the obvious pleasure derived by those who visit their creations, and the gratitude of parents that their children can have a safe and exciting Halloween treat.

Guilty Plea Brings Suspended Sentence, Restitution

Ricky Allen, 18-year-old Bay St. Louis youth who was indicted by the grand jury for two counts of grand larceny, pled guilty to both charges at arraignment proceedings Friday before Circuit Judge Floyd Logan.

Logan sentenced Allen to three years in the state penitentiary, suspended, and two years probation. Allen was also ordered by the court to make restitution in the amount of one-half of the value of the motors stolen or $250 plus court costs by Jan. 1974.

Allen was named with Michael Schwall as a co-defendant in the theft of two outboard motors last Aug. 20. Schwall was also named in 11 other indictments returned to the court by the grand jury. Schwall entered pleas of not guilty to each indictment before Judge Logan last week. Trial for him was set for the first Wednesday in the January term of circuit court.

Schwall is charged with two counts of assault and battery with intent to kill against Miss Jeanne Tirado and Mrs. Laura Prevett on 24 Sept. '73 and with 10 counts of burglary and larceny. Included in the charges is one count of attempted burglary of the Central Liquor Store on Central Ave. on May 30, 1973 and four counts of burglary and larceny including Bob's Service Station on 27 June '73, Demoran T.V. and Appliance on 26 July '71, Cuevas Junction in Kiln, Miss. on 11 Aug. '73 and a house trailer on 11 Sept. '73.

Schwall is also charged with three counts of simple burglary and named in three counts of grand larceny.

Howard McDonnell from Biloxi, attorney for Schwall, asked that one case be set for trial in January and the rest be set for call. Judge Logan set trial for the first Wednesday in the January term on one count of assault and battery. McDonnell said that Schwall's case history dates back from the time he was a young man and indicated that some psychiatric observation might be sought.

Bennett Brothers Re-sentenced After Burge's Acquittal

Two Picayune brothers, who pled guilty to statutory rape on Oct. 15, were re-sentenced by Circuit Court Judge Floyd J. Logan last Thursday following a motion by assistant district attorney Harold DeMetz.

DeMetz asked for a change of sentence for Henry Carlton Bennett and Larry Garland Bennett after the acquittal last Wednesday night of Gerald Lynn Burge, a third defendant who was being tried for forcible rape in the same case.

Logan had sentenced Henry Bennett to three years in the state penitentiary and placed Larry Bennett on five years probation and fined him $1,500.

In reversing his earlier sentence, Judge Logan said that in view of Burge's acquittal the court feels that "an injustice would be perpetrated upon Henry Bennett were he forced to serve a three-year term in the penitentiary."

The court, he said, could not assess the penalty against the Bennetts "when the trial evidence says that Burge was the master mind and ring leader of what happened that night."

Logan pronounced two-year penitentiary terms for both brothers, suspended the sentences and placed them on probation for two years.

It was the second trial in the case for both Burge and Henry Bennett. Both were convicted earlier by a Hancock County petit jury in Oct. 1972, but were granted a retrial by Judge Logan on the basis that "erroneous instructions" were given to the jury. It was the first sentence for the third defendant Larry Bennett.

A Greyhound bus and 16 cars were involved in the incident. Police reported that none of the passengers on the bus were injured.

Police said 14 of the 17 vehicles involved were totally demolished and wreckage was strewn over a 50-yard area.

It took authorities approximately 90 minutes to clear the wreckage enough to enable traffic to pass the accident. The injured were from Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi and Germany. They were taken to Sidel and Gulfport hospitals.

Delinquent Tax Property Sold

Bay St. Louis City Council voted to sell 20 lots of property this week for cost of taxes upon the recommendation of city tax collector Clarence Ladner.

Council accepted a check from C. L. Denton of Gulfport for $1,290.80 representing the city's share of tax lien against the property.

Included were lot one and two of block 16 in Shoreline Park. Lot seven and eight in block 19; lot 23-26 in block nine, lots three thru five in block 16, lots one and two in block 818, lots 37-38 in block 210, and lots 6-8 in block 110, all in Shoreline Park.

Also included were lot 317 in Ward Three and lot 14 in Ward One of the city of Bay St. Louis.

Miss. College Alumni Attend Homecoming

Mississippi College alumni from the Bay St. Louis area have been issued a special invitation to attend the annual Homecoming Day activities planned for Saturday, Oct. 27.

"We have a number of alumni who live in the Bay St. Louis area," said Dr. F. D. Hewitt, director of alumni affairs and Homecoming coordinator, "and we would like to have them join us on campus for a full day of activities."

Alumni meetings and functions will dominate the day-long program, including the annual Alumni Banquet, class reunions, election of alumni officers and the naming of the "Alumnus of the Year."

Although geared toward alumni, Homecoming also draws the attention of members of the student body. They are planning a parade through downtown Clinton, a talent review on the patio of the B.C. Rogers Student Center, displays in the campus quadrangle, and the presentation of the queen will take place during the halftime of the Mississippi College vs. the University of Arkansas at Monticello football game set for 7:30 p.m. on Robinson Field.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE ROBERT LADNER

Saucier-Ladner Nuptials

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the afternoon wedding Saturday, October 20, of Miss Mona Theresa Saucier, daughter of Mrs. Edna Puckett and Harold Saucier, both of Bay St. Louis, to Wayne Robert Ladner, son of Mrs. Josephine Ladner and Hester Ladner, Bay St. Louis.

Rev. Daniel Gallagher, associate pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with arrangements of pink roses and gladiolus.

Mrs. John McKenna, organist, played the traditional marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin lace gown. The beaded lace bodice featured long sleeves and square neckline. Her floor length veil of illusion fell from a band of satin and lace re-embroidered in pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and English ivy.

Mrs. George Anderson attended her sister as matron of honor and another sister, Miss Bobbie Jo Saucier, served as bridesmaid.

They wore formal knit dresses fashioned with light pink bodices and rose A-line skirts. Their headpieces were pink carnations and they carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations and English ivy.

Stacey Anderson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long white knit dress with headpiece and bouquet matching those of the maids.

Charles Oliver, Bay St. Louis, was best man. Roy Ladner, brother of the groom, was groomsman and George Anderson served as usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at 430 Main Street. The mother of the bride received guests wearing a lime green two-piece knit suit with black accessories.

The mother of the groom chose a tan knit A-line dress with brown accessories.

For her wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a plaid Navy and Burgundy two-piece suit with Navy shoes and an orchid corsage.

The couple will be at home at 417 State Street, Bay St. Louis.

Ferry-Smolensky Vows Exchanged

Miss Jane E. Ferry, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth P. Ferry of Waveland, and the late Charles Ferry, became the bride of Louis Smolensky, son of Mrs. Rachel G. Smolensky, New Orleans, and the late Saul Smolensky October 14 in an afternoon ceremony in St. Clare Catholic Church, Waveland.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Scanlon, pastor and Rev. Thomas C. Dowling officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her godfather, Paul Lassalle, wore an off-white formal gown of Desire material trimmed with lace medallions and seed pearls. She wore a chapel length veil of illusion and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and English ivy interspersed with dried statice in fall shades.

colors and white picture hats with wide matching bands. They carried bouquets of mums and dried flowers in autumn shades.

Sidney Seruntine, New Orleans, was best man. Groomsmen were James J. Ferry, Waveland, Alfred J. Ferry, Athens, Ga., and Michael J. Ferry, New Orleans, brothers of the bride, and Ben Barker, New Orleans.

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held at the home of the bride.

Upon their return from a wedding trip along the Mississippi Gulf Coast, the couple will make their home in New Orleans.

National Drug Abuse Week

Prevention Demands Community Cohesion

Although drug abuse is a daily concern of the American people, this week is of special significance to citizens as National Drug Abuse Week.

Throughout the country service and civic organizations, churches, schools, police, and city and county officials are concentrating their efforts on educating the public on the effects of drug abuse.

Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. John Hill, Drug Abuse chairman of the chapter, has distributed "Katy's Coloring Book" to all elementary school children in Bay St. Louis and Waveland. The booklet graphically illustrates the dangers of drug abuse.

A special prize will be awarded for the best coloring book in each class and an overall winner selected from the class winners.

Hancock County citizens took their first step toward a more effective and concise program of drug abuse prevention with an August 18 meeting of area residents, to discuss the problems and solutions of drug abuse in Hancock County. Marc McArthur, pharmacist at Hancock General Hospital, described visits to the Gulf Coast Drug Abuse Center in Gulfport where he had explored the possibility of a Bay St. Louis satellite center with Dr. John Russell, Center director.

Russell offered the facilities and source materials at the main Center to interested groups in Hancock county and stressed the importance of total community involvement. He also arranged for six representatives from this area to begin a 20-week training program at the Catacombs to later serve as volunteer satellite Center staffers.

For the past several years, Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary, like other civic organizations, has sponsored several different drug abuse programs. The Auxiliary feels that each of these programs would be more effective if all Hancock County service and civic organizations, churches, schools, law enforcement departments, and city and county officials combined their efforts for a united program to combat drug abuse.

The opportunity for such a coalition will be presented at a general meeting of these groups scheduled for November 8, 7:30 p.m. at Bay Jr. High auditorium. Dr. Russell will be guest speaker and all organizations are urged to support this effort.

HNC Hawks Lose To D'Iberville Warriors

By Edward Favre

The D'Iberville Warriors defeated Hancock North Central Friday night in a Pascagoula River Conference football game by the score of 45-0.

Mike Dobson led the Warriors to their victory, scoring five touchdowns and a two-point conversion, for a total of 32 points. Dobson scored two TD's in the first quarter; one on a 74-yard pass and the other on a 58-yard run. Mario Genna added two-point conversions after the first two touchdowns to give the Warriors a 16-0 first period lead.

In the second quarter Dobson got two more TD's, one on a nine-yard run, the other on a three-yard run. Herbie Bellas made good on a two-point conversion and John Decoteau made the extra point from placement to give the Warriors a 31-0 halftime lead.

Dobson scored his final TD

in the third period on a 24-yard run, then added the two-point conversion making the score 39-0.

The final Warrior touchdown came on a fumble recovery by Garth Callavet in the Hawk end zone. Score 45-0.

The Hawks, 1-6, will travel to Vancleave this week to play the Vancleave Bulldogs.

Bay Schools Participate In 'Star' Program

The Mississippi Economic Council, the State Chamber of Commerce, has announced that Hancock County is represented in MEC's 1973-74 Student-Teacher Achievement Recognition (Star) Program. The announcement was made by D. E. Rozier of Jackson, chairman of the program, which is a project of the Council's Committee on Education.

High schools participating in the Star Program from Hancock County are: Bay Senior High and Saint Stanislaus High both at Bay St. Louis.

Two hundred fifty-two schools participated in 1972-73. The Star Program emphasizes the importance of scholastic achievement and encourages greater efforts in this direction by Mississippi students. The program also honors the teaching profession.

To qualify for participation in the Star Program, students must be regularly enrolled seniors in an accredited public or private Mississippi high school. They must have taken the American College Test (ACT) in their junior or senior year.

In each high school, the two students who receive the highest grades on the test are eligible. From these two students, the one having the higher scholastic average during his or her first semester senior year is named the school's Star Student and will receive the Star award.

Each Star student is asked to designate the qualified Mississippi teacher, regardless of grade taught, who in the Star student's opinion, made the greatest contribution to his or her scholastic achievement. To qualify, a Star teacher must be an active classroom teacher in either a public or private school or a retired teacher.

Star student and teacher awards will be presented before a student assembly in the spring.

Our Lady Of The Gulf

School News

Rev. Father O'Brien, C. M., a representative of the Vincentian Fathers of Beaumont, Texas, spoke to Our Lady of the Gulf sixth graders Monday on religious vocations.

Our Lady of the Gulf Bears football team won their first game of the season Saturday when they defeated St. Clare's Warriors 21-13.

The team will meet St. Paul's Rebels at St. Paul's School, Pass Christian, Saturday, October 27. A.U.F.O. football bowl is being planned for next month. Further details and the date will be announced later.

Our Lady of the Gulf P.T.O. held its monthly meeting and annual open house October 18. Mrs. J. E. Lofcano, president, conducted the business session and welcomed parents and faculty.

Sister Patricia Sullivan, principal, invited the parents to visit the library and view the recently purchased books. Mrs. A. M. Thomas gave a progress report on the annual penny party to be staged October 31 on the school grounds and Mrs. James Thriffley called attention to the bike race chart on display in the cafeteria.

First and second grade parents met with the teachers prior to visiting the classrooms.

Mrs. John McKenna, first grade teacher, on behalf of the faculty, thanked the organization for the air conditioning units placed in the classrooms.

It was announced the P.T.O. will sponsor a bus trip to New Orleans, November 27. The day's activities will feature lunch and a guided tour of D. H. Holmes' store in Lake Forest. Further details will be given at a later date.

The attendance prize went to Sister Marie Louise's third grade; the door prize to Mrs. Andre Arceneaux and the 50-50 award to Jack Sokak.

Mrs. J. E. Lofcano, Class I-B room mother, and Mrs. Donald Cor, fifth grade room mother, hosted the social hour.

GARDEN CLUB SOCIAL

Lakeshore Garden Club held its annual luncheon-social October 18 in Gulf National Bank's Civic room.

Mrs. Henry Kothmann, president, announced the Garden of the month plaque went to Mrs. William Schaefer.

A nominating committee consisting of Mesdames Frank Peterson, Norris Sumrall and Robert Taconi was appointed by Mrs. Kothmann. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

A new member, Mrs. Elva Buron, was introduced. Members were reminded to bring a Thanksgiving or Christmas arrangement to the November meeting to be judged.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ben Mutter and Mrs. Norris Sumrall.

Bay Hi Cops City Championship In Game Against SSC

By Edward Favre
The defensive units of the Bay High Tigers and the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws outshone the offensive units of both teams by scoring both touchdowns that were made in the game Friday night at Tiger Stadium where the Tigers were celebrating homecoming and battling for the Bay St. Louis City Football Championship. The Margin of victory was one point, with Sam Piazza kicking the extra point for the Tigers.

The Tigers put up a scoring threat in the first quarter but the drive was stopped on the Stanislaus 20-yard line.

The deepest penetration for the Rocks in the first period was to the Tiger 33-yard line. In the second period the Tigers started to generate another scoring threat but the Stanislaus defense dug in and stopped the drive on the Rocks' 31-yard line.

With just three seconds left in the first half Stanislaus took a 6-0 lead on a pass interception by David Depreo, who galloped 60 yards for the score. The extra point attempt by Mike Price from placement was no good, making the halftime score 6-0.

The Tigers got on the scoreboard with 7:30 to go in the third quarter when Rudy Tillman intercepted a David Wier pass which was deflected at the Stanislaus 10-yard line and took the ball across the goal line to tie the score at 6-6. Sam Piazza and his educated toe made good on the extra point attempt from placement giving the Tigers a 7-6 lead. In the fourth period the Rocks started to put together a scoring threat but were stopped when Leslie Hinson intercepted a David Wier pass at the Tiger 21-yard line.

The game ended with Bay High in possession of the football at the Rocks 30-yard line.

Bay High, 5-1, will host the Picayune Maroon Tide this week at Tiger Stadium at 7:30 p.m.

Stanislaus, 3-4, will travel to Biloxi to play the Notre Dame Rebels.

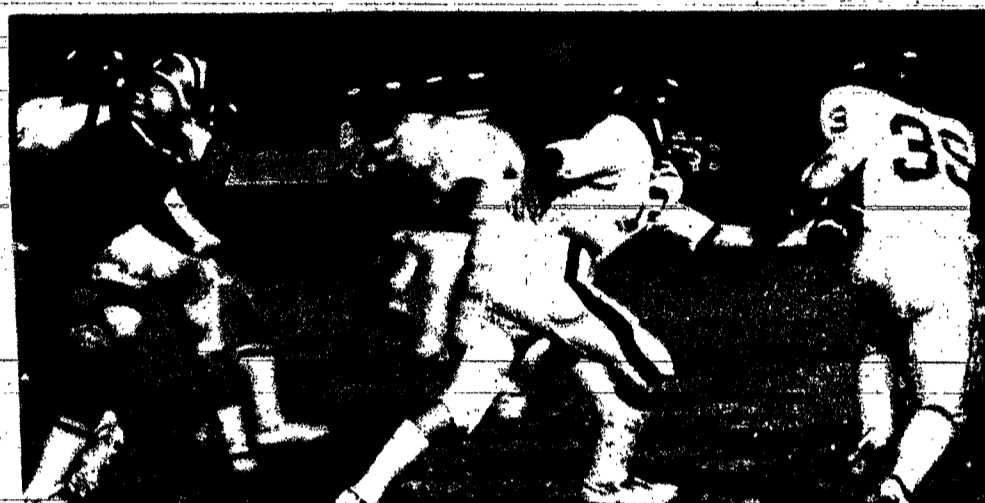

SCORE BY QUARTERS:

Bobby Eagan sailed to an overall fourth place in the 36 boat Flying Scot fleet in the Hospitality Regatta. The three races were sailed on Barnett Reservoir at Jackson Yacht Club October 20 and 21. Extremely light air prevailed all day. Saturday and only one race was able to be sailed. Eagan, with Woody Stiefel crewing, earned a third place in the first race. The remaining two races were run back-to-back in a moderate breeze Sunday morning, with Eagan finishing seventh and eighth, giving him a final standing of fourth. In the Scot class Hjalmer Brett of Southern Yacht Club was first.

There were 192 boats participating in the regatta, on three separate race courses. BWYC JUNIOR DANCE - Saturday, October 27 at 8 p.m. Main lobby, 4000000.

Mississippi College Homecoming Response Is Good

The 1973 Homecoming celebration at Mississippi College, set for Saturday, Oct. 27, could be the largest ever if reservation from Bay St. Louis and other areas of the state continue to come in at the present rate.

Dr. F. D. Hewitt, director of alumni affairs at the college and coordinator of the day's activities, said that reservations have been received from alumni from all sections of the state and they continue to come in.

"With the football team recording two straight wins, reservations have picked up considerably this week," said Dr. Hewitt. "Although we still have some tickets left, it looks as though we are going to have another sell-out for our annual Alumni Banquet."

Dr. Hewitt urged all alumni and friends who have not yet purchased their tickets to the banquet, set for 6:30 p.m. in the Women's Gymnasium, to send in their request immediately or call him at the college.

Dinner tickets are $4 each for the buffet meal. Entertainment will be provided by students from the Division of Fine Arts under the direction of Dr. Jack Lyall.

The highlight of the banquet will be the announcement of the "Alumnus of the Year" for 1973 and the presentation of the "Order of the Golden Arrow" Award which was instituted last year.

In addition to the banquet, other features of the Homecoming Day celebration include alumni meetings, class socials, coffee and coke socials by various organizations, a parade through downtown Clinton, a variety show on the patio of the B.C. Rogers Student Center, the football game and the traditional crowning of the Homecoming Queen and presentation of her royal court during halftime ceremonies. The Chocwats meet the University of Arkansas-Monticello in this year's football game. It will start at 7:30 p.m. on Robinson Field. Miss Patti Pierce of Amory and Al Stubblefield of Jackson are serving as Student Body Association chairmen for the event.

NEW OFFICERS WAVELAND EXTENSION CLUB

Mrs. Juliette Cook was elected president of the Waveland Homemakers Extension Club at last Tuesday's meeting in the home of Mrs. Edward LeVasseur.

Others named to office were Mrs. Alberta Daly, vice-president; Mrs. Gertrude Shambley, treasurer, and Mrs. Ivan Bradford, secretary.

The new slate will be installed at the December meeting.

The next meeting will be held November 9 in the home of Mrs. Irene Duehr in Abita Springs.

The cold front which reached this area last Tuesday night helped fishing a lot. Speckle trout began hitting better and fresh water fish bass and perch are doing better most everywhere. Bass are still striking surface baits. Those fortunate enough to get out to the marshes say that speckles and red fish are hitting plenty. Several ice boxes were filled by those going out. Among those catching them were John Scafide, Jr., Alden Mauffray and others, Senior and Junior Dick Mestayer. Seems like red fish predominated.

Alden Mauffray and yours truly caught 8 speckles, 3 bass and one red fish down in Mulatto Bayou last Wednesday evening. They were all nice size. Alden caught most of the three different fish on a rebel jointed plug. We both used the fly rod with popping bugs.

Found out that live shrimp can be secured at Bodge's Camp on Bayou Caddy, Joe's Camp on Jourdan River and Kelly's Camp on Mulatto Bayou. They are four cents a piece but well worth it for catching speckle trout.

Small grass shrimp are excellent for catching bass and perch. There are several places where they can be gotten if you know where to find them. Catching both bass and perch on a perch-pole is also a lot of fun.

Fishermen are always looking for a place to rent a boat. One of those places is at Pearlinton, Miss. at Roy Baxter's Marina. Baxter has aluminum boats for rent and a hoist. Putting over is made easy from the wharf and skiffs are pulled upon the wharf by a tractor.

Dr. M. D. Horne, is a professor of English at Loyola and a commuter to the big city. Doc doesn't care much for fishing but he said he is crazy about catching hard crabs and eating them.

Van Adam has been down from Green Bay, Wis. visiting with relatives. Van was a former resident. He plans to retire soon and will make his home in Bay St. Louis. Jokingly he said he loves to do salt-water fishing, but can't catch 'em.

Fred Bankston is 81 years young. He is a sports fisherman and goes quite often. It was a pleasure talking to him. Plenty fishing in this neck of the woods, Fred.

Was glad to hear from Lemmy Favre but sorry to learn that he is in the hospital suffering from an injured arm. He said he took the head off a 18-horse motor, started it and the motor struck a mud bank, tilting it forward. His arm hit the fly wheel cutting it badly. This should be a lesson to all out-board motor operators. Keep the head on the motor while running it, warns Lemmy. It is a safety precautionary measure.

Forgot to mention when I ran Bill Gaudet as "Sportsman of the Week" that Bill is with the Gulfport Sun, the new morning paper.

Poison Ivy worries some fishermen and with good reason. Even the smoke from burning these plants can cause poisoning. Defensive step number one is to learn to identify these plants with three leaflets and avoid them. If you have been exposed to poison ivy wash the exposed parts of the body with mild soap and warm water as soon as possible, preferably within two hours. Repeat the washing, then rub the area with alcohol. Reprint.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Baudry and some of the small pelicans visited us Sunday. They plan to return before it gets too cold to do some fishing and crabbing.

Must have caught some more fish out front again this weekend. Quite a number of boats were by the highway and railroad bridges. No dope on bull croakers as yet. Must be like the N.Y. Mets, not hitting.

Alligators take a heavy toll on fur bearing animals according to the La. Conservationist.

Those hunting ducks in Louisiana better remember that at the season on Canavassacks and Redhead ducks is closed in Caddo, St. Charles and St. Mary parishes.

Harry Brooks has gone to New Hampshire to visit his 94-year-old mother-in-law. He is doing ok after hospitalization.

In last week's column I mentioned that some folks at Bayou Caddy caught flounders in crab nets. Mrs. Nellie McKane said that she caught flounders in crab nets she made herself in Ireland years ago. Mrs. McKane is one of our best fishermen and still catches her share of fish.

Al Champagne of Waveland has been laying off of fishing for a while. Getting ready to go with his friend Achle Diebold. They get their share of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Domain of Waveland brought stuffed flounders, potato salad, and other good things to Mrs. Villere at Clarise's as a returning home treat for her and her customers. Clarise, her daughter and son-in-law Debbie and Jim Campbell went to Florida. Gene Domain went fishing Monday morning, caught all kinds of fish at Three Oaks and Hebron Bay. He is one of our best fishermen and gives most of his away. How can you help liking a guy like Gene?

Derrell Bourgeois and Jim Justice have recently bought a boat to go fishing with Gene Domain. All three like to fish. Go on every occasion.

Understand John Scafide, Sr. and Jr. with Alden Mauffray caught oodles of speckles and red fish out at the marsh Sunday. They said they were hitting like nobody's business.

Believe it or not. There are as many red fish as speckles being caught out at the marsh. They are hitting dead shrimp and artificial baits. Have even been catching them in Mulatto bayou and Pearl River.
